The coal trade, says The Miner's Journal, is not so brisk as it was last week, and is evidently sympathizing to some extent with the stagnation which prevails in other branches of business. The Iron business and many other branches of manufactures are also dull at present, which materially interferes with the prosperity of the coal trade. Many of the collieries centinue "drowned out," and are only pumping during the rainy weather. The trade sums

The Hog market at Fortieth-st. opens this week rather tame.
For the last ten days Hors have been selling slowly, with a downward tendency, and the news of Monday was not at all calculated to produce on advance. The average quality of the arrivals has lately been hardly up to the medium standard, being composed of such a large percentage of orilinary Hogs and few prime lots. There has been, however, an occasional it of graine Pigs, weighing from 140 to 150 the, aft and even, and selting for more money than any other grade that could be frought here. As to the effect of the late military operations upon the prevision trade, which rules this market, the opinion

The arrivals for the week amount to, 5,417; same week last year, 6,827; corresponding week preceding year, 17,776.

Special Committee of the Boards of Aldermen and Conneilmen, appointed to consider the letter of the Councilmen, appointed to consider the letter of the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, John Decker, amouncing the probability of the Paid Fire Department bill becoming a law, and asking for instructions as to the action it may be decided should be taken when the new Fire Commission are appointed. On motion of Alderman Ryers, it was agreed to request the Boards of Engineers and Foremen to appoint a Special Committee to confer with this Committee on the subject. The Committee then adjourned. COUNTY VOLUNTEER COMMITTEE. - The County Volunteer Committee enlisted 40 more mer yesterday. It is understood that the State Paymaster-General is about making definite arrangements to sup-ply Mr. Blunt with ample funds to continue volunteer-erton, editor and proprietof of the new sporting journal The Arena, was yesterday arrested on a charge of libel, on the complaint of Joe Coburn the puglisst. Since the return of Coam from Ireland, where he went with the avowed intention burn from from Arce, The Arcan has criticized his actions there and him very sharply. A few evenings since Cobern met Bretherten in the calound Harry Hill, No. 25 East Houston st., and threw a glass of see in his face. For that he was arrested and held to bail by Jeather Bowling, and this calt is hought as a counter charge. Justice Bodge held Brotherton to bail, and Mr. Hill became his surety.

ROBBED OF A WATCH .- On the night or the 6th of November last while Mr. John Genin, jr., residing at No 121 West Fourteeath at, was passing through East Twentieth st., and when near Avenue A, he tripped and fell. While lying upon the walk Patrick Hart stole from him his gold liying upon the waik Patrick Hart stell from him his gold watch and chain valued at $250. Patrick O'Keefe witnessed the transaction, and Hart, to procure his silence, gave him $30. A few days since O'Keefe acquainted Mr. Genm with the name of the person who stole his watch, and yesterday he coused the urrest of Hart by efficer Renton of the Eleventh Precluct. The watch was found in the possession of Henry Canry of No. 224 East Fourteenti-st, who stated that he gave Hart $70 for it. Justice Shandley committed that for trial and sent O'Keefe to the House of Detection as a witness.

SAD TIDINGS .- We learn that private dis-entches are received in this city announding that Brevet Major-Gen. Robert B. Potter of New-York, son of R. Rev. Bishep Potter of Pennsylvania, has been wounded. probably mortally. Gen, Potter before the war was a lawyer in this city, going to war as Lieut.-Cal. of the 51st regiment. He was with Gen. Bornside 's North Carolina and at Knoxville, and at all times showed himself a sterling man.

We are also informed that Brevet Brig. Gen. Frederick Winthrop was killed on Sunday. Gen. W. commanded a brigade in Sheridan's cavalry. His body has been embasined and was at City Point preparatory to transmission North.

FLOOD ON THE MIAMI RIVER .- There has been a serious freshet on the Miami River, and at Dayton. Ohio, and other points in the vicinity, a very beary amount of damage has been sustained. Wood, lamber, and other "floatable" property in expesed situations were carried away, and in some cases buildings and bridges shared a similar fate. A very large proportion of the city of Dayton was hundated, and the low lands in the vicinity were nearly all under water. Other places on the line of the river also suffered from the inguitable, but to what extent we are as yet mable to determine.
